Dennis Swaney, owner and operator of the downtown Romulus IGA store, has been sworn in as the new president of the Greater Romulus Chamber of Commerce.

In his first official act Swaney presented outgoing President Larry Williams with a large ceremonial clock as an official chamber thank you for his two year term as chamber president.

Swaney also admitted not having a history of public speaking behind him.

"Thus I asked for help from Mayor William Oakley," Swaney said jokingly, "and he supplied his tips as a veteran speaker on the back of his business card."

Oakley in addition to swearing in Swaney, also installed Joseph Kochanoski of International Paint Stripping as first vice president and Gil White

Jr. of Dadson Electric as second vice president; Dennis Williams of DAWCO Publishing Co. as secretary; and Barbara Lippert of the Romulus Marriott Hotel as treasurer.

Oakley also swore in the current board of directors including: Barry Caplan of Doubletree Hotel; Joel Carr of Romulus Schools; Bill Dulchavsky of Rudgate West Manufacturing Home Community; Kathleen Karas of Airline Parking; Terri Kay of Days Inn/Howard Johnson/Hampton Inn; David Goodwin of Lade-man and Youd of Michigan; Mark Lewkowicz of Landis Machine Co.; David Paul of the City of Romulus; Oscar Rhoten Jr. of Metro Realty Group Inc.; Gary Sampson of Adventure Travel Service; and Larry Williams of Precision Hardware.

It also was announced that the next Romulus chamber meeting will be held at noon on June 20th at the Best Western Hotel.

Romulus Corrections Officer Donald Bosley was presented with a special tribute on the floor of the Michigan House of Representatives last month following his selection as Michigan Correction Officer of the Year.

State Rep. Raymond Basham (D-Taylor) said Bosley represents "the best and the brightest that Michigan has to offer."

Basham added "He is an excellent choice for Corrections Officer of the Year."

Bosley is currently assigned to the Residential Treatment Program at the Scott Correctional Facility in Plymouth.

Bosley is a U.S. Marine veteran of the Vietnam War.

He began his career with the State Department of Mental Health in 1978 and later moved to the Department of Corrections in 1995.

In Basham's tribute, he said "Bosley's record of professionalism and willingness to help his fellow officers has helped earn him the trust and admiration of his colleagues."

S. Wayne Road closure slated for next Monday

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Minor road detour routes are being set up in Romulus as efforts progress for Detroit Metro Airport's new sixth jet runway – that reportedly will make Metro's airfield capacity superior to even Chicago's O'Hare Airport.

Detour warning signs have been erected at Wayne and Grant roads and several other sites in preparation for next Monday's official closing.

No time of day has been listed to date for Monday's closure. Metro Airport spokeswoman Barbara Hogan said last Friday.

Airport representatives, Romulus city officials and others have been meeting in recent months in an attempt to make sure the permanent closing of Wayne Road from Grant to Eureka Roads will have as little impact as possible on local travel.

Romulus city and school officials expressed concern earlier that the closure could cause heavy truck traffic to begin using Grant Road.

Airport officials feel now that they will not occur.

Romulus Department of Public Works Director David Paul said Monday that it is hoped that key truck traffic will travel from Northline to Wahrman to Grant – thus relieving the heaviest portions of truck traffic on most of Grant Road.

According to Metro Airport information "local motorists will encounter three road construction projects on the west side of the airfield (1) the closure of Wayne Road (between Grant and Eureka); (2) the reconfiguration of Goddard Road (near the Vining Road and I-94 interchange), and (3) the reconstruction of the intersection at Wayne and Grant Roads.

On Monday, the Metro Airport report continues, Wayne Road (between Grant and Eureka) will be closed and motorists will be directed on the official detour around the perimeter of the airport.

Approximately 60 days later (mid-August) the detour will be removed and a new road will open, replacing the closed section of Wayne Road. The other two projects will not require detours.

Metro Airport also will erect 35-foot high earthen berms along portions of the new perimeter roadway to lessen jet noise – via a deflection and an absorption effort.

Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara also predicts that the jet runway will be finished in advance of the 99-gate midfield terminal in December 2001.

McNamara also said that the FAA states the new runway will trim delays by at least 3,000 hours each year.

Construction on the new perimeter road project (which bears no official name at this time) will also begin Monday – being the first to impact a geographical area outside the traditional airport grounds.

Airport terminal construction work is in a region that will not impact existing airport travelers in any way, according to Lester Robinson, new Metro Airport director.

L. Linn Day, director of the airport's properties, planning and facilities, said the project will take place in three phases over a 180-day period.

The three phases are: 2,900 feet of Northline and Wayne Roads over 60 days; roadway between Wayne and Grant Roads during the next 90 days; and finally 7,500 feet of new two lane concrete roadways involved in the intersection of Goddard and Wayne Roads over 30 days.

Robinson said he feels the project is a win-win situation for everyone, since old water-mains and general improvement of the water distribution system will take place at the same time as the road project.

Day said the massive $2 billion airport expansion project has "had little effect on the traveling public in terms of inconvenience as we have tried to be as invisible as possible," Day said.

The new runway will be known as runway 4/22, Hogan reported, and work on it has already begun. It is predicted that the 10,000 foot runway will allow for easier aircraft access to the new terminal and offer greater flexibility for pilots and air traffic controllers in inclement weather and other conditions.

Further updates will be published in the Michigan Community Newspapers when needed in coming months.

Sound Off

a senior citizen, but he can't admit or deny doing it.

What a laugh. Barns does NOT run for reelection (by the way, this is a good thing); Barns is appointed to the mayor's planning commission (by the way, this is a bad thing); Mr. Spisak is appointed to the mayor's planning commission (by the way, this is also a bad thing).

The mayor and his five campaign for Griffin, Cox and James to become elected; the senior citizen votes catapult Cox, Griffin and James to victory in November; the council majority fires a 20 year employee, the clerk; residents and other people object to the firing in a big way; and Glen Shaw's son Steve Johnson blasts other citizens, Anderson and LeBlanc. Johnson is a nonresident who stated his address as being in Westland.

The owner of a local restaurant (Fire Academy) criticizes Anderson and LeBlanc; a recall is started against Mrs. Scott; the fire chief involves himself in confrontations against residents active in the recall; and the personnel director sends e-mail impersonating the recall leader.

The senior director gets caught on city time and in a city van gambling with other employees on city time. Cox moves into Westland and disregards our laws by letting a PIG live at his house.

The clerk evaluations are said to be the reason for her being fired; Cicirelli loses the clerk evaluations; Cicirelli finds the clerk evaluations. How convenient.

Anderson, Cicirelli and LeBlanc ask council to approve the right for us to elect our clerk. The council says no.

Mayor Thomas flip-flops on the TIFA plan he had for forcing a new rec center and city hall; now he says we don't need them. Mayor Thomas announces he is jumping ship to run for a county commission seat; how coincidental.

Citizens submit petitions to elect our clerk. Mrs. Scott announces she is running for state representative while involved in a recall. How funny.

I probably left some things off the list; but it's big enough anyway. You get the picture. What a sickening year. No one would believe it if you were to tell them of this story. But it is all true. Yes, Westland certainly is "NOT the place to be."

Who in there right mind would even think of this being a place you would want to raise a family? This city is in serious conflict right now and it won't get better until the mayor and his five (yes, his FIVE) are gone.

Sanders back in court on Tuesday

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Celestine Sanders, the former Adams Middle School principal, will be back in 16th District Court in the city of Livonia at 9 a.m. Tuesday to answer to 12 counts of embezzlement.

Sanders is accused of embezzling more than $8,000 of school funds reportedly raised by the students during various school projects. Although she was suspended, with pay, by Wayne-Westland Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Greg Baracy, Sanders opted to resign her school post. She pleaded not guilty at her arraignment and was released on a personal bond.

A prominent educator who was once considered a serious candidate for the Wayne-Westland School District's superintendent's job, Sanders was arrested and charged with embezzlement after a month long investigation by Westland police.

A change of court venue was necessitated when 18th District Court Judges Gail McKnight and C. Charles Bokos disqualified themselves to hear the case because they were acquaintances of the defendant.

The State Court Administrative Office picked Judge Kathleen J. McCann to hear the case, and the exam will be held in the 16th District Court in Livonia.

The court is located on 15140 Farmington Road.

Though the Sanders' examination will be handled in the Livonia courtroom, the paperwork will later be forwarded to the 18th District Court in Westland, where the alleged embezzlement occurred.

A preliminary court exam is held to determine whether a crime has been committed and whether the defendant took part or was responsible for the incident. If the prosecutor can present enough evidence to show that the defendant was involved, the court then will bind the defendant over to the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice for arraignment on the charges and set a date for trial.

The defendant also may "waive" the court hearing. In that case, the defendant would be bound over without the hearing in the lower court.

Sanders is presently free on a $5,000 personal bond. If she is found guilty on all 12 felony charges, she could receive up to 10 years in prison on each count and a $5,000 fine.

Field Day festivities held

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

A Fun-tastic Field Day of events was celebrated recently at St. Aloysius Catholic School in Romulus.

Students in grades K-8 competed in three age groups in several events including a 50-yard dash, three-legged race, potato sack race and basketball shooting extravaganza.

One of the highlights of the basketball contest was an incredible five successful shots in a row by kindergartner Robert Malinowski. He thus beat all other students in the school.

Other major events included a massive tug of war between the staff and each class, a popsicle eating contest and a water balloon toss.

The event was coordinated by Physical Education Teacher Julie Wadsworth.

The day's events included a hot dog cookout and an ice cream awards ceremony sponsored by the St. Aloysius Parents Club.

Holy Family Catholic Church celebrates 55 anniversary

By THEOLA JONES
MCN Special Writer

Father John Lehner and the members of Holy Family Catholic Church in Inkster have completed plans for the 55th Anniversary of the parish.

The celebration will be held at Park Place, 23400 Park in Dearborn. The festivities are scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. Tickets are priced at $25 for adults and $12 for children.

Entertainment for the evening features the famous Blue Pigs Jazz Band, and God's Heavenly Hands Choir.

A look at the profile of the parish refers to the influx of workers from the South in the late 1930's, who came to the picturesque farmlands that was later was to become the Village then the City of Inkster.

They came for employment in the auto industry, in the plants at River Rouge, Willow Run and in the medical complex known then as Eloise.

Some of the newcomers were black Catholics, who found a spiritual home at Detroit's St. Benedict the Moor; but that was 15 miles away.

St. Benedict's pastor Father Timothy Murphy and the Provincial of his religious order, the Holy Ghost Fathers, made plans to build a parish in Inkster.

However, in 1941, World War

II halted immediate construction plans. Over the years the small group held vacation school, and religious education classes in the administration building of Carver Homes, and in the homes of the Coleman and McNair families.

Finally, a Quonset hut on Hickory Street in Inkster was converted to church use. The pastorate of Father Sylvester Fusan covered 17 years, from 1953 to 1970, the period of transition from mission status to parish, from Quonset hut to the present beautiful facilities on Annapolis Road, the largest house of worship in the City of Inkster.

The parish though small in number exerts a strong influence in many civic, medical, judicial, commercial and educational enterprises. Two former mayors of Inkster are both members of the parish, as well as the present mayor, Hilliard L. Hampton, II.

The parish motto, "Let our family be your family", describes the goal of outreach to the community.

Westwood administrator, students big winners

By THEOLA JONES
MCN Special Writer

Westwood school officials and students are "big winners" in a contest staged recently by the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Pamela Harris, an assistant principal at Robichaud Senior and Junior high schools in the Westwood Community School District, and her students were recent winners of a $10,000 "Smart Cart".

The award was presented to them by the Wayne County Regional Education Service Agency (WCRESA).

Yes, you read this correctly. Harris won $10,000 worth of video equipment. The items include: An Multimedia computer, projector, DVD/Video CD/Audio CD player, VHS player/recorder, and an AV modulator.

To be eligible to win the multi-package, an administrator and teacher had to be present on a consistent basis for an after-school workshop hosted by the Intermediate School District.

Willa Clark, a teacher from the Learning Center, and Harris, an administrator, completed the task RESA declared Harris and Robichaud Junior High School as their winner.

The staff and student body are excited about incorporating the technology into everyday teaching and learning experiences.

Pamela Harris, Robichaud Senior and Junior High assistant principal, and Robichaud students DeWayne Parker, (from left) Dawn Haney, Chester Hooper and Justine Wilbur are all smiles after they were informed that Harris and Robichaud were winners of a RESA contest that awarded the recipients $10,000 in video and computer equipment. Harris displays a check for $10,000 for the "Smart Cart" contest she was presented.

'Pets' come to Recreation Center

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The Michigan Human Society, in cooperation with the Wyandotte Animal Group (WAG) and the city of Inkster's Parks and Recreation Department, will stage its third annual "Protect a Pet" day on June 17.

During the time of 10 a.m.

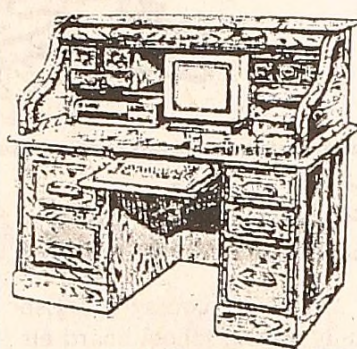

and 2 p.m. pet owners may bring their pets to the Booker T. Dozier Recreation Complex, on Middlebelt, 1/3 mile north of Michigan Avenue for a Vaccination Clinic.

There will be free rabies vaccinations for eligible dogs and cats.

Voters face tough choices in June 12 school election

Mark Monday June 12 on your calendar. That is the day you and your neighbors are expected to go to your local precinct and select two candidates to seats on the school board. And with the face of public education changing drastically, this selection will be more important than any in the past couple of decades.

This is especially true in Inkster, where the school board recently voted to contract with New York-based Edison Project: to operate Inkster Schools. No one can argue Inkster Schools hasn't plunged mightily in quality of education and number of students since its heyday 20 years ago. It is hoped Edison will eliminate Inkster's financial problems and lure many students back from the charter schools that have all but decimated the Inkster school population.

Four Inkster candidates are running for two positions. One of those candidates is current school board president George Williams. Joining Williams as candidates are Antoine Shaw, Jacqueline Sledge and Margaret Washington.

We recommend Inkster voters place their confidence in Shaw and Washington. Shaw has a Master's in guidance and counseling. He stresses the importance of "accountability from bottom to the top" in order to run the school district around. He is highly critical of the education Inkster students are currently receiving, noting at one time Inkster graduated some of the most prominent professionals in the country.

Washington, a Ford employee for 14 years, has a Masters of Science from Central Michigan University. Additionally she has earned a business degree from Cleary College, and expects her financial background can play a crucial role in rebuilding Inkster Schools. The mother of three Inkster graduates, Washington will remind voters that in 1974 the system graduated 305 students. This week they graduated 50.

Van Buren Public Schools is also experiencing a changing of the guard. Longtime superintendent James Richendollar has retired. Additionally, the school board's vocal minority, Vesta Losen and Thomas Bowles have decided not to run again. In their place, two new members will be elected from three candidates Robert Binert, Victor Hogan and Keith Johnston.

We recommend Van Buren voters give the nod to Hogan and Johnston. We admire Hogan's commitment to improving the school system. The U of M and EMU masters grad has visited every school in the district, investigating finances and attempting to determine what can be done to improve MEAP scores. A cancer researcher at Karmanos Institute, Hogan thinks graduates from BHS can compete favorably with those of other districts and would like to continue the facility and curriculum improvements the board has made in the past decade.

Johnston, President of Johnston Lithograph in Romulus, if elected would become only the second board member with school children attending school in the district. An active volunteer, especially with youth sports programs, Johnston wants to promote more civility on the board. In reference to Losen and Bowles, he said, "I can tell you one thing: I won't wear a yellow T-shirt that says Kids First Yes, a pro-voucher symbol, to school board meetings."

In the Plymouth-Canton School District, change is also evident - mainly in the form of a new superintendent and high school. Here, five candidates are running for two seats in a campaign that has caused considerable debate over the location, name and features of the yet-to-be-built high school and MEAP scores.

We endorse incumbent Elizabeth Givens and challenger Kathleen Payne. Also running is another incumbent Judy Mardigan and challengers James Donohue and Carl Battishill. We think Givens has done a fine job in her first four years on the board. With a Masters from Temple University, Givens thinks more emphasis should be placed on MEAP scores because people buy houses based on that barometer.

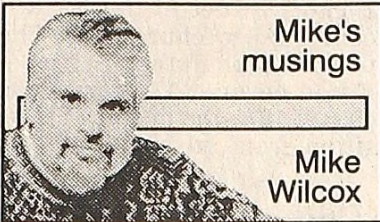

On the other hand, Payne, a MSU law professor, makes the argument the MEAP is overrated. "I believe we would be much better off evaluating the ability of students on a national test, like the Iowa Test," she said. Additionally, Payne is pushing for another bond to upgrade the new high school with a pool and auditorium. "It's a shame for a first-class community not to build a full-facility high school," she added.

Four candidates are running for two seats in the Wayne-Westland School District. Unlike neighboring Canton, this race has been called one of the quietest contests to come along in awhile. Voters can choose between newcomers Cindy Schofield and LeeAnna Deniston, appointee Richard Eisiminger and three-time board candidate, Marshall Wright. We favor Wright and Schofield.

There is something to say for Wright's persistency - having run and lost twice before. But being a perpetual candidate has made Wright very knowledgeable about Wayne-Westland Schools, and we think he deserves the opportunity to utilize that knowledge in bettering the system. Wright says he wants to be a team player and stresses patience with MEAP scores that will get better.

Schofield, with three small children in Wayne-Westland Schools, is concerned that they get a good education. Active in many school committees, she is stressing building improvements as a way to improve the district's image. She promises to provide an independent voice on the board.

We recommend the status quo in Romulus. Under retiring superintendent William Bedell, and his successor Joel Carr, Romulus is one of the better run school districts in the area. Thus we see no need to dump incumbent Betty Lenossi and Michael Woods. They are being challenged by Rob McLachlan.

Sorting out the candidates

Yawns are contagious. Especially during school board elections.

As Monday's election looms, yawns are epidemic in Wayne-Westland and Plymouth-Canton.

I can understand the lack of interest in Wayne-Westland, where only 2.6 percent of the district's 70,000 voters are expected to cast ballots, because none of the candidates have raised any issues. A vote for any two is a vote for the status quo.

On the bright side, all of the candidates are nice people perfectly suited to do the job, which requires members to attend meetings consisting of all sizzle but no steak. Meetings begin with dog-and-pony shows, where school employees usually pat themselves on the back for anything they want. After the self-praise, members quickly approve the superintendent's recommendations. Yawn.

But in Plymouth-Canton, where 5.2 percent of the 73,000 voters are anticipated, the yawns baffle me.

Not only have candidates debated some issues, voters can opt for the status quo with incumbents Elizabeth Givens and Judy Mardigan, planned change with Kathleen Payne, random change with James Donahue, or time travel with Carl Battishill.

Let me explain. Donahue, former Canton treasurer, now a police consultant, presents himself as a good decision maker. He criticizes the current board for not being accountable for decisions, especially financial ones. He not only declines to stake out any positions, he cannot state an educational philosophy. Asked if he favors progressive or traditional education, he says he won't be labeled. During the recent candidates night, when he was asked questions, he frequently side-stepped them, saying, "I don't have the facts."

Ivan Helfman

As voters, we don't have the facts on Donahue, that's why the election of this board critic could lead to random change. If you want to shake up the board, vote for Donahue, the joker in the deck.

Battishill, endorsed by the employee unions, said he will be a "cheerleader" for the district. A former board member, Battishill has a record. Under his watch, red ink flowed to the point where the opening of a new school had to be delayed. The cheerleader board turned voters into naysayers, who rejected a millage during the transition to Proposition A, lowering the district's per-pupil state funding to their present low point. If you want a return to a cheerleader board or wish industrial strength support of union issues, support Battishill.

Kathleen Payne holds out hope for rational change.

A law school professor, she is well aware of the general academic decline.

"At the university level, we face a problem of finding student writing skills not as proficient as they used to be and we're trying to ask why," she said, rattling off several theories, including the use of computers, which some current board members bought without weighing the benefits and detriments.

As a former teacher and counselor, she is also aware of the means to correct the decline in reading, a move away from whole language teaching, a move indicated as necessary by countless studies but resisted in the district.

Payne's belief in providing elementary students with foreign language classes and middle school students with in-school orchestras indicates that she favors challenging students. Perhaps I'm reading too much into her suggestions, but I see her as a partial counterweight to the progressive education methods that are holding back too many talented elementary and middle school students in the district, though not just in the district (A recent study of 24 models of school-wide reform found that only three could furnish "strong evidence of positive effects on student achievement." All three were teacher-centered traditional methods, according to James Traub in Salon).

So if you want a voice for elementary and middle school reform that works, vote for Payne.

Though both Elizabeth Givens and Mardigan champion the status quo, Mardigan is the anti-Payne. A supporter of student-centered progressive education, Mardigan supports the fads, such as small classes and big computers, that bust budgets and chase out experienced teachers. At her worst, she fought to reconfigure the high school campus so the district would have to pay $500,000 a year to bus students, now pedestrians, between buildings. A critic of the campus, the best she could do was to support a way to make it more expensive but cutting out classes and adding buses.

If you favor the status quo, especially continuing experimenting on students, vote for Mardigan.

Givens, offering the status quo, is more flexible than Mardigan, managing to vote against wasting $500,000 a year on high school buses. The vote also suggests a practical streak or a desire to go with the flow. If you favor the status quo, you may safely vote for Givens, yet expect a little flexibility in the unlikely event that the district ever gets serious about challenging students with traditional education.

Firefighter wants to add voice

The Romulus firefighter issue rose to a new plateau on Monday night as personal safety...and possible political involvement entered the picture.

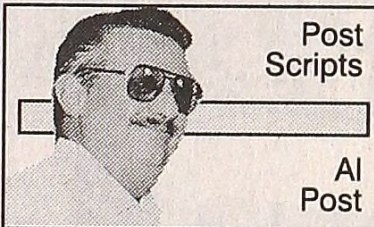

Mark Wilhide - who appeared before the Romulus Council back in October 1999 - complained that he felt that the Oakley administration didn't hold a high image of local firefighters.

While Wilhide vowed he had no intentions of running for public office in Romulus - he stated just as strongly he "won't go away" until the firefighter issue is resolved here.

"My main concern is about the safety of the public and fellow firefighters," he said sternly.

He feels local firefighters are dedicated and unselfish professionals - and declared he would even "go to the gates of hell fighting fires with Fire Chief David Allison."

But he chided Mayor William

Post Scripts

Al Post

Oakley for his lack of action since last October - and said he felt Oakley had only called a meeting of out-of-town fire chiefs on Monday "because he knew I'd be speaking here tonight."

Oakley discounted that notion. Wilhide like others at prior meetings complained about the poor response times Romulus firefighters have been recording and asked to see some type of effort that shows positively that the administration is sincerely trying to upgrade the fire/medical call efforts within the city.

Another Firefighter John Thiede - who works a fulltime job outside the city also - was not as quiet about future political action.

"I may run for the council," Thiede stated. Then he warned "if I die on the job both my family and various agencies will be after you."

Thiede then stated "do any of you on the council know that we get 2,100 calls a year. That is more calls than some full time nearby fire departments receive."

Thiede like Wilhide and others questioned why various Romulus firefighters are not being involved in any possible future committee that will study the city's fire department needs.

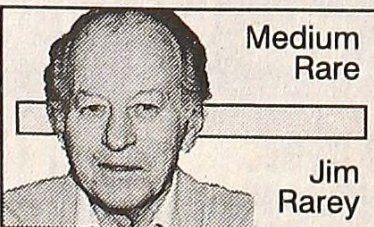

This writer agrees that local input should be an important element in future planning of the city's fire department.

How open are local governments?

At least in Western Wayne County, the answer to the question, "How open are local governments?" is not very.

As a general rule, policies and practices of city governments and school administrations seemed designed to shield themselves from the public and discourage active participation by residents.

The City of Romulus (but not the Romulus School District) may be the exception that proves the rule. Meetings of the City Council are televised live on local cable and are rerun twice later in the week (at 7.30 p.m. and noon). Packets of documents to be considered at council meetings are provided to the local newspapers and copies are displayed for public examination outside the city clerk's office at least a day or two before the meeting.

Medium Rare

At Romulus council meetings, audience members are allowed to ask questions or make comments on each item on the agenda before the council votes on the item. This is in addition to a discussion period on the agenda where anyone can raise any issue they desire.

The State Open Meetings Act only requires that audience members at public meetings be accorded "reasonable" opportunity to speak. In many cities this is interpreted to provide only a "discussion" period after the council has finished its voting, leaving residents no opportunity to influence council actions before the voting.

This writer knows of no other city government in the area that allows the public the same access to documents that council members have before the meeting. Indeed, some even require a request be filed under the State Freedom of Information Act after the meeting before divulging any public documents. This allows them to charge the requester a fee for making the documents available.

Citizens cannot make valid judgments on the performance of local government unless they know what their government officials are doing.

All city governments should adopt the Romulus example in implementing the spirit of the Open Meetings Act and Freedom of Information Act rather than hiding behind the technicalities.

Can't shake your boody in Westland

Dear Editor:

What I, The Fab Four Lady, would like to discuss is why I have stopped attending most social functions in Westland.

Starting with why I will no longer attend any of the parades, something to which I have always looked forward.

The recent Memorial Day Parade exemplifies my feelings. To me, this event is to commemorate the dead, especially the veterans. Yet, what do I hear on WLND? How the parade is being put together for "the kids, the parents," and even "the siblings."

What is all of this "family-value" crap? As if someone must get married and hope they are fertile enough to have kids – in order to be welcomed at social events! Just another way to divide the community. Eliminate the people with no families.

And, if you really want to get someone's dander up, ask where JESUS was in the CHRISTMAS parade!

Moving along, the upcoming fireworks display, billed to be the best, I believe in the county? I don't think letting half a minute pass between each and every round of fireworks is very spectacular!

Especially when viewed from a pot-smoke-filled baseball field, full of mud, yet void of music, while falling embers set fire to the nearby trees! Not to mention all of the electrical wires covering the ground, over which one must be careful not to trip.

I'll rate as "Number One" the fireworks display in Detroit, with its music and dance and rapid rockets exploding into an extravaganza of light and color – all being fired simultaneously from three separate barges reflected upon the waters of two separate countries, while the national anthems of both play on. One can almost hear and see Francis Scott Key composing "And, the rockets red glare, the bombs bursting in air!"

One feels a sense of pride as one begins to sing, "... gave proof through the night, that our flag was still there!" The heat from the sky lends credence to the fact that this event is "First Rate!"

And, the finale is the best that I have ever seen in my entire life – even in California, previously the best that I, personally ever experienced before Detroit's display. Yet, I'm sure that there are even greater displays than Detroit's, still waiting to be discovered.

By the way, why is there no speech as to what the Fourth of July is all about? Let alone an reenactment! It's not just about fireworks!

Moving along, I would like to ask, where are all of the police when some people are still setting off private fireworks displays for the entire summer, even in the neighborhood of city hall, driving crazy all the pets and small children?

Oh, yes, I also wanted to ask about these carnival settings. Who is it who thinks that eating from dirty, uncovered, broken-down picnic tables set in dirt is fun? Not even a level, cement foundation or even a tablecloth of any kind. If there is so much surplus money floating around, perhaps someone could spring for a few new tables.

Next, the so-called concerts behind City Hall every Summer. One season, we tried to be active at that event, as well. Everyone sits around in stupid folding chairs, not even tapping a toe or finger. Like a bunch of wallflower zombies. This is not natural behavior – to not respond to music. This behavior has been TAUGHT to people.

Anyway, I asked a council member if it was OK to dance. She turned to another person, while they practically had a council meeting to ponder that question. I couldn't BELIEVE that even the council members weren't encouraging people to get "out there" and show some community spirit and dance! They would all freak out at a California concert, where thousands of people of all ages are encouraged to be young at heart and dance till they drop! And, I am NOT talking about some acid-rock or heavy metal concert. Music without dance is so bizarre!

After we were given the approval to dance, we started having fun. We thought that, perhaps, others were just waiting for someone to start the dancing. So, as good citizens, we started doing the cha-cha, swing, and other dance steps. Later, as we were leaving on our bicycles, people began pointing, whispering, then laughing at us. The lazy, vegetating wallflowers had the nerve to laugh at us, the ones who exercise, stay in shape, and try to have

Westland has a really bad attitude regarding exercise and dancing at social events. Unless it's a waltz, perhaps.

But, just mention FOOD! Then, the whole herd rushes in. Mo-o-o-o-o! Get it together, Westland! You should be ashamed of yourselves!

The Fab Four Lady will go where people like to dance and exercise.

And, I don't mean line-dancing or going to a spa, or taking part in some annual walkathon. Everyone needs to remember President Kennedy's "Physical Fitness" programs. Trade in those stupid folding chairs for bicycles and dancing shoes!

President Kennedy would be ashamed of today's Americans, their smoking, drinking, overeating, and total disregard for exercise and health. And, I felt bad because I had never done one of his famous "90-mile hikes." Though I have run or bicycled for many miles – as Westland people shout for me to "get off of the road!" But, what else can you expect from a city who permanently removes sidewalks, has no subway, streetcars, light rail or mono-rail systems, beautiful bus system, has no incentive programs for carpooling, discourages electric cars, does not believe in bicycle lanes, and believes that only CHILDREN and POOR people ride bikes or use any of the aforementioned systems?

In conclusion, I will go OUTSIDE of Westland for fun because Westland doesn't know what real fun is! I would NEVER bring children into this stagnating, prejudicial, repressed, archaic environment where those who care about their health are laughed at!

*I need a breath of fresh air!
The Fab Four Lady,

Don't allow a low voter turnout to elect Wayne-Westland school board

Dear Editor:

On Monday, June 12th, there will be school board elections throughout the city. While we realize that past elections have had low voter turnout, and that Superintendent Greg Baracy predicts another VERY low turnout, we hope and, yes, encourage every citizen within this community to vote.

Please be aware of whom you are empowering with the betterment of your children's future. Originally my wife and I were supporting Marshall Wright and Cynthia Schofield. While still supporting Mr. Wright, we will no longer vote for Mrs. Schofield upon learning she works for Kathy Makino and company.

Mr. Eisminger has every inten-

A Beautiful Smile

Q: What are some of the options available to give me a beautiful smile?

A: At Newburgh Heights Dental, we have many options available to you. For example, you may have chipped or badly worn front teeth. Well, one of the best ways to fix that is by placing veneers on the teeth. Veneers are thin porcelain facings, similar to a false fingernail, which are bonded to the front of the teeth and give you an instant beautiful smile.

Others may have crowded or crooked teeth, but think that they are too old for braces. Nothing could be further from the truth. The fact is that more and more adults today are getting braces to correct problems that for one reason or another were never corrected when they were young. We have an orthodontist who can work with almost any mouth.

Other options available are bleaching (teeth whitening), bondings, bridges, crowns, and implants. At Newburgh Heights, we have what it takes to make your smile beautiful. So why not take that step and do something you have been thinking about for a long time. Call today for an exam and a personal consultation.

Call Oakley for info

To the editor:

On Monday night, June 12th, 2000, the citizens of Romulus will once again be exercising their rights at the ballot box. Among the issues to be decided are three ballot proposals that will affect the speed and efficiency with which our city government is able to deliver services to our citizens.

First, successful passage of these proposals would only allow the city administration to make minor spending decisions more rapidly, none of the proposals raises taxes in any way. Secondly, by improving the speed with which decisions can be made, our government is less expensive to operate. Thirdly, though one of the components of all these proposals provides an increase in maximum spending limits, the new limits are still far below the normal inflation that has occurred in the last thirty years.

I ask anyone not familiar with the content of these proposals, please call my office and discuss them with me personally. I can be reached at (734) 942-7500. I look forward to talking with you about these proposals or any other questions you have concerning the quality of life in our great city or how we can work together to improve service to our residents.

Thank you sincerely for your support over the years and for your consideration in reviewing these important proposals so important to a responsive, progressive government.

*Very truly yours,
William M. Oakley, Mayor
City of Romulus*

Romulus wins state track crown Coach Norb Glover and Eagles end 55-year state title drought

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

June 4, 2000 is a day that will live in the hearts of Romulus High School track & field fans forever.

It is a day that the Eagles and coach Norb Glover ended a 55-year title drought by capturing the Michigan Division II championship.

The last time a Romulus High track team had won a state title was in the last days of World War II when Harry Truman was President of the United States, in May, 1945.

"I don't think any of us who are a part of this will ever forget," said Glover after his team wrapped up what he called a "perfect season." by capturing the state championship.

"Please. Please give all of the credit to the kids, our coaching staff and our fans. They deserve it," Glover pleaded.

Romulus had little, if any, room for error, especially down the stretch where Detroit Renaissance was waiting. Although Romulus built up a 25 point lead, Renaissance refused to quit and kept the pressure on until the very end.

Romulus came away with a mere one-point edge over the Detroiters, winning the state Division II title, 47-46, at Grandville. Haslett was a distance third, with 28 points.

"This victory was a long-time coming," said Glover, whose 1999 team lost the state championship by three points after one of its relay teams dropped the exchange of the baton. "The (state) title in 1945 was won in Class C. This is our first Division II championship."

Romulus watched as Renaissance made a late bid to rewrite history. The Detroiters cut the Eagles' seemingly overwhelming margin by finishing 1-2 in the 200-meter dash.

"When I saw that I said

'ouch!', and I immediately knew this was going to be a dogfight right down to the finish," Glover offered. "Then, they (Renaissance) beat our guy in a photo finish in the quarter, and I felt the title slipping away like it did a year ago.

"Our kids stepped up their effort and didn't let them take it away from us this time," the veteran coach added.

Romulus surfaced with the best long jumper in the state in junior Ray Graves whose 22 feet, 7 inch performance was not only the best in Division II but also the top effort in Division I competition.

Graves' teammate, David Jones, a senior, also earned a medal when he finished fifth with a leap of 21 feet, 5.

According to the Michigan High School Athletic Association rules, athletes who finish in the top eight places at state are awarded medals. Those athletes who are among the top three also earn "All-State" recognition.

The Eagles managed to win two other individual medals. They came home with a silver in the 400-meter dash where Ashley Terry lost to Renaissance's sprinter, Alton Anderson, at the wire.

Both runners were clocked in 49.1, but the Detroiters were given the nod (49.15) and the gold medal, while Terry came away with the silver (49.16).

But Terry, who has several college offers, including a full-ride athletic scholarship to Bowling Green, helped the Eagles win two of the relays.

With Terry's help, Romulus's all senior 3,200 and 1,600-meter relay teams finished with the gold. Terry, plus Jarvis Jordan, Caleb Beasley and Henry Staple covered the 3,200-meters in 8:00.03. The foursome also combined to finish first in the 1,600 in 3:22.30.

Glenn, Wayne are wiped out at districts

Hudson 1-hits Rockets

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Westland John Glenn had the opportunities, but the Rockets didn't capitalized on them as they stranded nine runners on the base paths in their final game of the year 2000 season.

"It's been like this throughout most of the season," said Duffield as Garden City and Rob Hudson handed the Westlanders a season-ending 5-0 loss in the Class A district playoffs staged at Livonia Franklin.

"We had opportunities to score in the fifth and sixth innings, with runners on first and second, but just couldn't bring them around," said Duffield. "Robbie (Hudson) was very effective against us - he pitched a one-hitter - but we still left nine runners on base. "And that's what really killed us."

Hudson missed chalking up the no-hitter when he gave up a two-out single to Brandon Ajlouny, who had singled with Mike Grant on. Grant was one of nine Rockets who Hudson walked in the game.

Glenn again threatened in the sixth after Hudson got the first two batters he faced in that inning on strikes. Then, the Garden City hurler gave up walks to Dave Holloway and Ryan Rattray who were left there when Hudson got his third out on a harmless grounder to first.

Garden City scored early as they tagged Glenn starter and loser, Jeff Mitchell, for two runs in the opening inning but Mitchell managed to hold the Jaguars scoreless the next four innings before he got into trouble.

A three-run Garden City outburst in the top of the sixth routed Mitchell and sealed Glenn's fate.

In his six innings of work, Mitchell have up five runs, seven hits, while he fanned three and walked four.

Glenn ended the season with its worst record in recent years. The Rockets finished with an 8-21 overall mark.

"Obviously I am disappointed," Duffield said. "Going into the season I knew we lacked the pitching, but I felt that this team would make up for it with its hitting. We did not bridge the gap."

Duffield will have a solid foundation of returning veterans to build the year 2001 lineup. Ajlouny, along with Nate Campbell, Josh Day, Mike Grant, Dave Mijal and Jeff Koslowski are underclassmen.

Glenn also fielded a good-looking junior varsity squad which has a lot of potential.

A heartbreaker for Wayne

Dearborn shattered Wayne Memorial's dream of a first post-season soccer title when the Pioneers (above) drilled a goal in the closing minutes of their district playoff showdown and strolled off their field with a 1-0 victory and the district title. The loss, however, didn't diminish Wayne's outstanding and unprecedented year in which the girls won their first-ever Mega Conference title and chalked up an incredible 17-4-1 overall record.

Committee to select Wayne baseball coach

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Who will coach Wayne Memorial's varsity baseball team next season?

Will it be interim coach Tom Wakefield, present junior varsity coach Bill Hamilton or former Dearborn Edsel Ford coach, Dennis Walczak?

That question may be answered on or before June 16 by a committee that is being put together by William Hawley, Wayne Memorial Athletic Director.

Wakefield took control of the team early in the season after the administration fired longtime coach Jim Chronowski for allegedly using pro-

Like Hamilton and Walczak, Wakefield is a teacher in the Wayne-Westland school district.

Hawley said that all coaches receive a one-year contract which may - or may not - be renewed by the school board at the end of the school year.

Hawley on Sunday said he is putting a committee in place to select the head baseball coach for the year 2001 season.

"We have three excellent candidates for the job," Hawley said. "They are well-qualified, and it will be an extremely difficult task to pick the final candidate."

"But it will be up to the committee to do so," Hawley concluded.

Heartbreaker in semis Eagles jolted at district by HR by 7th

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Romulus watched its 7-5 lead dissipate and hopes of a District baseball title evaporate in the last of the seventh as Riverview's Casey Watson drilled a two-run homer into left centerfield to lift the host to a 8-7 victory over visiting Romulus.

The victory in the semifinals was Riverview's ticket to the championship round where they clashed with Allen Park for the title. AP emerged the winner, 10-6, and the district champ.

Romulus coach Keith Brothers said the loss to Riverview was a "very emotional one, especially for the seniors."

"We have four or five players on this team who have been with the program for four years. It was a heartbreaking way to end their high school career."

"If we had beaten them, I felt we may have won the district."

Romulus blew a 6-1 lead.

Up 5-1 after the first complete inning thanks to a two-out walk to Robert Belcher who started the five-run rally.

Belcher was doubled home by Ryan Block, who also scored when Alan Brohl singled.

Then, Dennis Landskroener got a hold of one of starter Stanley Sieman's fastballs and lifted it over the left centerfield fence for an two-run homer, making it a 4-0 game. Ricky Foster kept the Romulus rally going when he walked, then proceeded to steal second and third. When the Riverview catcher's throw to third sailed into the outfield, Foster scored the fifth run in the inning.

In the second the Eagles added a run on four walks - to Block, Alan Brohl, Landskroener and Foster to make it into a 6-1 ball game.

Garden City eliminates Wayne in finals, 10-6

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Wayne Memorial had playoff-title favorite Garden City on the ropes, but couldn't come up with the knockout punch.

In the bottom of the first, Wayne erupted for three runs and took a 3-1 lead which coach Tom Wakefield's club failed to defend and fell 10-6 in the championship round of a Class A district playoff staged Saturday at Livonia Franklin.

Despite published reports to the contrary, Wayne defeated host, Franklin, 9-3, in a pre-district game earlier last week, and also stunned Livonia Churchill, 3-1, in the semifinals on Saturday to earn a shot at Garden City.

"I am proud of these kids and the team," said Wakefield, who was drafted to coach the Zebras two weeks into the season after long-time Wayne coach Jim Chronowski was fired for allegedly using profanity during a team meeting.

Wakefield noted that the team managed to overcome adversity and negative publicity to salvage the rest of the season.

"These kids knew that they needed a team effort to survive. And they worked together and accomplished their goal. They also learned to believe in themselves and the program."

"Let me add their work ethics and integrity of this team are unquestionable."

In the district finals, Garden City apparently was not taking any chances against an upstart Wayne team that came into the championship round with an unimpressive 9-11 overall record. GC threw their ace, Justin Ockerman, at Wayne and Wayne didn't flinch.

"It surprised me that they (GC) threw Justin at us because we hit him pretty good when we met him during the regular season," Wakefield noted.

And the second encounter was no different. Wayne jumped on the GC ace for three runs in the first inning, but Garden City came back and exploded for five runs in their third to go ahead, 6-1. GC also added two more runs in the fourth and single runs in the fifth and seventh.

Wayne countered with a two-run rally in the seventh as Ryan Ybarra led off with a base hit, moved to second when Ockerman walked Gary Stevens.

After John Judd and Matt Mackiewicz struck out, Jason Gibson sliced a two-run single to right, but was left stranded when Scott Teasdale popped up to third.

Ockerman fanned 12 and walked four, while giving up 11 hits in picking up the victory.

Wakefield started Pat Barter on the mound. Barter worked the first 2 2/3 innings before Ybarra took over. Ybarra pitched the next 1 2/3 innings, and he was replaced by Mackiewicz, who had pitched and won the semifinal against Churchill, and Justin Moes, were called to duty.

Of the 10 Wayne hits, Adam See collected two - a single and a double, while Stevens, in his three times at bat, scored twice and chipped in an RBI, while Ybarra contributed a pair of singles, an RBI and also scored once.

Mackiewicz cut down Churchill with a five-hitter. The senior righthander notched eight strikeouts and walked one en route to the 3-1 victory. He missed his shutout when the Chargers managed to parlay a hit, a walk and an error into a fourth-inning run.

Wayne scored all the runs they needed for this victory in the first inning as Stevens hammered a two-run homer with Ybarra aboard in the first inning.

The Zebras got an insurance run in the sixth when Ybarra singled, was sacrificed by Stevens to second, and scored on a throwing error.

Ybarra accounted for two of his team's six hits in the victory.

To warm up for the district, Wayne bounced Franklin, 9-3, as Mackiewicz, in relief of Ybarra, got the win. Ybarra started and gathered goose eggs until the top of the seventh when he allowed two runs that tied the game.

Mackiewicz stepped in and got the side out.

In the bottom of the fifth, Wayne batted around in scoring seven runs as See started the rally with a leadoff double. Ybarra then singled him home and when Stevens was safe on an error, Wayne had runners on first and second.

John Judd's single drove in one run and Mackiewicz then sacrificed, driving in another run. Chris Cox walked and that brought Moes to the plate. Moes drove a double down the left field line, scoring a pair of runs.

Scott Teasdale also doubled, scoring Cox. Barter kept the rally going as he drove in a run with a single. See, up for the second time in the inning, walked, but when Ybarra grounded out, the inning ended.

Wayne finished the Year 2000 campaign with a 9-12 overall record, but the Zebras were 8-9 after Wakefield took over the team.

Whether Wakefield will return to the team for the Year 2001 season will be determined in the next couple of weeks by a committee (See Related Story in Sports Section) as Wayne Memorial Athletic Director William Hawley announced on Sunday that there are two other candidates who are seriously being considered for the varsity coaching position.

Sport beat

Here's what is happening on the Sports Beat this week:

Tigers to hold tryout camps

The Detroit Tigers announced today that they will be holding two one-day tryout camps, one on June 11, at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti and the second on July 10, in Grand Rapids at Old Kent Park. The tryouts are free and open to non-drafted, eligible players between the ages of 15-25. Players are invited to showcase their talents during the workout.

Registration for the tryouts will begin at 8:30 a.m. and the workouts run from 9 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. All players must register on the day of the workout. Tiger officials say that there will be no pre-registration.

All players should bring their own workout equipment. All other equipment will be provided, including catching gear, helmets, wood bats and baseballs.

Anyone with questions regarding the try-out should contact the Tigers Baseball Operations Department at (313) 962-4000.

Westwood offers summer swim class

Senior Master Carl Tate can be reached at (313) 730-0889 for further information. Team Tate International also may be reached by mail at PO Box 591, Inkster, Mich. 48141.

Schultz earns All-MIAA honors

Albion College junior Rebekah Schultz is a member of the Briton women's track and field team this season.

A graduate of Hemlock High School and a resident of Belleville, Schultz competed in the distance events, specializing in the 5000-meters.

Albion ended the season with a 3-3 overall record and finished fourth in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Schultz finished second in the 5000 with a time of 18:49.87 at the recently-staged MIAA championships. For her performance, Schultz was named to the All-MIAA Track & Field Team.

Tennis, anyone?

Junior players may improve skills

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

If you're between the ages of 4 to 15 years old and want to learn or improve your tennis skills, the Canton Parks and Recreation Services has a summer camp with you in mind.

Recreation officials announced this week that they offering tennis lessons to players in the Pee Wee, Beginner, and Intermediate divisions, beginning the week of June 22.

The morning sessions, for Juniors, will begin on June 22 and go until July 13 (there will be no lesson on July 4); Junior Session II is the weeks of July 18 through August 3; the evening sessions for beginners are June 27 until Aug. 3, and the Intermediate players will start the week of June 29 and last until Aug. 3.

Lessons will be conducted on Tuesdays and Thursday from 9 a.m. until 10 a.m. (Beginner Junior Level); 10 a.m. until 11 a.m. (Intermediate Junior Level); and 11 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. (Pee Wee Junior Level).

On Tuesdays, the Beginner Junior Level players will have the courts from 6 to 7 p.m.; while the Intermediate Junior Level players will train from 6 to 7 p.m. on Thursdays.

All lessons will be conducted at Freedom Park.

There is a $30 registration fee for Pee Wee (4-6 year olds). The non-resident fee is $35. For the Beginner and Intermediate (ages 7 to 15), the registration fees are $36 for residents and $42 for non-residents.

Registration will be accepted at the Canton Parks and Recreation Department at 46000 Summit Parkway.

Recreation officials also note that Kristen Harrison and her staff will conduct the program for the Pee Wee, Beginners and Intermediate level participants.

Wayne's Deisler tops WSGA

The heat may be up, but the scores are definitely down in the Women's Suburban Golf Association league.

Playing the Tyrone Hills Golf Course, Wayne's Terry Deisler turned in an 86 to walk off the course with the WSGA's Low Gross score for the week.

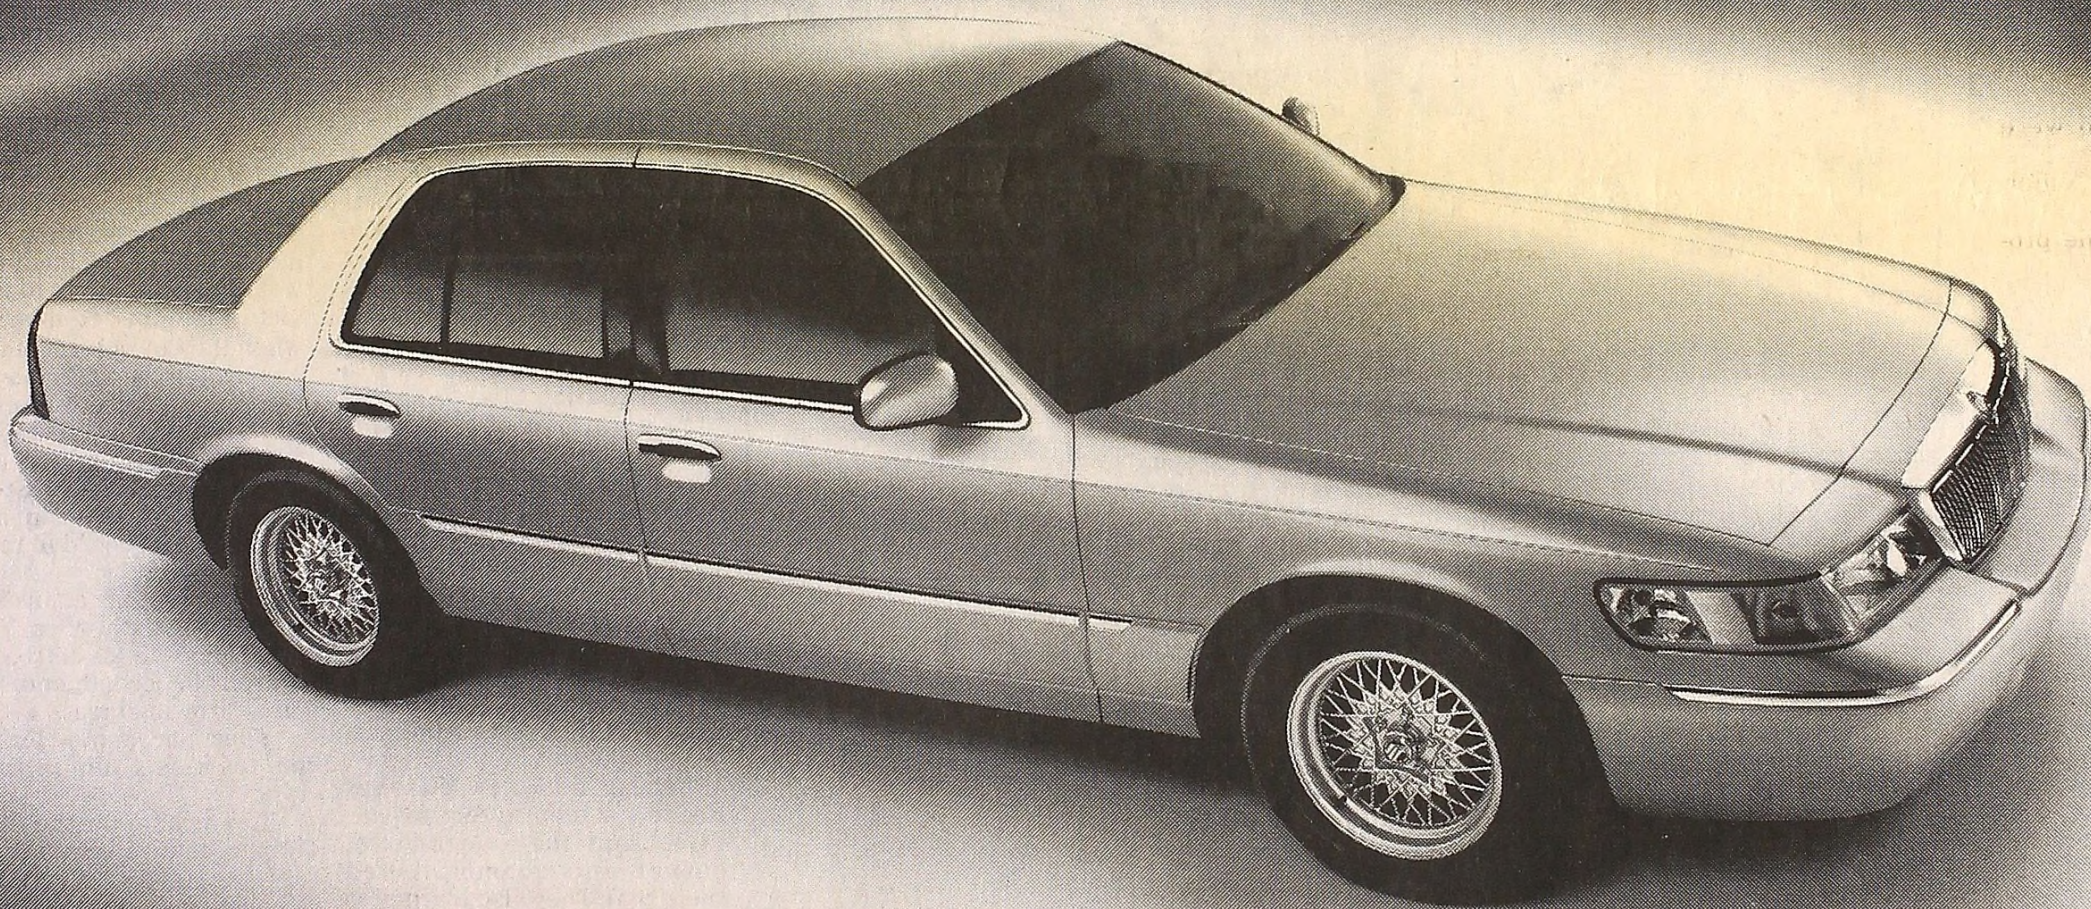

In the meantime, Ginny Karolak fired a one-over-par 73 to earn Low Net honors in the First Flight.

In the Second Flight, Carol McQuade's 97 earned her the Low Gross for the week, while Westlander Penny Irwin shot a sizzling 74 for top Low Net honors.

Lori Wilson's 101 for the best Low Gross in the Third Flight, and Pat Wilson, of Dearborn Heights, came in with a 4-under-par 68 for the Low Net of the afternoon.

Dad seeks girls for hockey team

He wants to organize a local league

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

When a Westland dad discovered that the closest city where his girl could compete on a hockey team was in Monroe, he decided to take the initiative on his own and organize a team in the city of Westland.

Kermit Pennington said that he approached the Westland Hockey Association about his plans of fielding a girls team, and they gave him a conditional green light - that the majority of members on the team had to reside in the city of Westland.

"So I went out to recruit kids, ages 7 to 10, for the team and what happened was that I got a tremendous response from the city of Livonia, but not locally.

"So I am aggressively seeking players in the age group, and would like to hear from Westland parents who also want to see their girls compete in hockey," Pennington stressed.

Pennington also pointed out he managed to get a hold of a former professional hockey player-coach, Dave Mathenson, who is willing to train the prospective players.

"Dave will be available to teach power skating," Pennington said. "He has excellent credentials, so we will have someone to help us get the team off the ground."

Pennington revealed that during his search for players he found another local resident who is willing to help organize a girls team, ages 12-15.

"We would like to hear from those who are interested," Pennington concluded.

Players must be the age of 10 or 15 before Jan. 1, 2001.

The 7-10 girls House Players will practice on Tuesdays at 7 p.m. The 12-15 year olds have the ice on Fridays, beginning at 1 p.m.

For further information, contact Kermit Pennington at Ben Paull Heating at 1-734-282-6624.

'Sand' volleyball teams are needed

Getting off the floor to spike a volleyball is not the easiest feat of all, but it becomes even a greater challenge in the sand.

If you're up to the challenge and can find a few others who also are, head on down to the Canton Parks and Recreation Department and register for its Sand Volleyball League.

The leagues are made up of Recreation Coed 4's, and Intermediate Coed 4's. There is also a condition that a minimum of two females must be on the court at all times.

Competition will be staged on Thursday at 6, 7 and 8 p.m.

The teams also must be made up of players ages 18 and older and there is a $80 per team registration fee.

Those who are interested or need more information should contact the Canton Parks and Recreation Department at 46000 Summit Parkway.

Arch-rival Renaissance was second-best, finishing at 3:24.5.

Romulus also earned a seventh-place medal with their 400-meter relay. The lineup, which included a pair of sophomores - Fred Harbor and Charles Searcy - and two juniors, Graves and Michael Woods, was clocked in 44:07.

Renaissance made its move with a victory in the 400-meter: Jason Davis, Elton Anderson, Daryl Nunn and Ken Stanford picked up the gold with a 43.27 run.

The Eagles also got a sixth-place from Beasley in the 800-meters run. He completed the distance in 1:58.7. Big Rapids' Justin Blakely won the event in 1:54.7.

Glover and the Eagles' historic season also included an unblemished 6-0 record in the Mega Conference, White Division; a 10-0 overall record, plus a regional title and their first state crown in more than a half of century.

And, with most of the athletes returning next year, fans are already talking about a "dynasty."

Nothing, as the Year 2000 Eagles have proven, it impossible.

Semis

But, the Pirates came back with a single run in the bottom of the fifth, added three more in the sixth when Brothers decided on a pitching change. He replaced starter, Ryan Block for reliever Aaron Brohl.

Brohl eventually gave up the decisive HR to Watson that sealed the Eagles' fate.

Romulus closed out the first season of the millennium with a 15-14 won-lost overall record. The Eagles (10-2) also were runner-up to Dearborn Fordson (11-1) in the Mega Conference, Gold Division.

Brothers said that the program is making progress and he believes with a number of quality players returning next year, "the 2001 season should even be better."

"We are losing some excellent ball players," said Brothers, who completed his second year as head coach, "but we had some outstanding juniors and sophomores on this team. I expect them to be even better a year from now."

Hawley

that one of the goals of the committee will be to select the coach before the end of the school year.

"It would give the successful candidate an opportunity to select his coaching staff, discuss goals and objectives, meet with players, if needed."

The committee will be made up of representatives from the administration, personnel, an assistant principal as well as the head of the athletic department, Hawley noted.

Announcing the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 Sweepstakes and three ways to win one very cool car.

A brand new Corvette will be awarded to one lucky Grand Prize winner on October 8, at the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 in Charlotte, NC. It's easy to enter. You can do it from home by simply calling 1-888-UAW-AND-GM or by visiting www.uaw-gm.websweeps.com. Or you can enter in person at any of the exciting UAW-GM Sweepstakes tour events. This sleek, head-turning Corvette was built by the proud men and women of UAW-GM and has an approximate retail value of $55,000. And if that's not enough, there are other great reasons to enter. Because seven finalists will receive a trip for two to the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 as well. Sounds like fun, doesn't it? So get going.

The UAW-GM QUALITY 500 Sweepstakes. You don't have to race to win, but you should hurry. See official rules for complete details.

OFFICIAL RULES

1. NO PURCHASE OR ON-LINE ENTRY NECESSARY.

2. How To Enter — You may enter through one of the following methods: (1) Complete an Official Entry Form, available at any UAW-GM Sweepstakes tour event; (2) Call 1-888-UAW-AND-GM (1-888-829-2634); or (3) Complete the on-line Sweepstakes Entry Form at www.uaw-gm.websweeps.com. All entries must be received by midnight EST on 7/31/00. LIMIT ONE ENTRY PER PERSON PER DAY, regardless of entry method. Internet entries will be deemed made by the authorized account holder of the e-mail address submitted at the time of entry. The authorized account holder is the natural person who is assigned to the e-mail address by an Internet access provider, on-line service provider, or other organization that is responsible for assigning e-mail addresses or the domain associated with the submitted e-mail address. All entries become the property of Sponsor and will not be acknowledged or returned. No mechanical reproductions permitted. 3. Eligibility — Sweepstakes open to legal residents of the U.S., 21 years of age or older with a valid driver's license, except for employees (and their immediate families and members of the same household) of General Motors Corporation, United Automobile Workers, Lowe's Motor Speedway and their affiliates, advertising or promotion agencies, who may not enter. Void where prohibited or restricted by law. 4. Prize Winner Selection — Seven Finalists will be selected in random drawings on or about 8/15/00 as follows: Three from all entries received at participating Sweepstakes tour events, two from all eligible telephone entries, and two from all eligible Internet entries. Finalists will be contacted by phone and/or mail and will be required to execute an Affidavit of Eligibility and Liability Release and, where legal, a Publicity Release form, within seven days of receipt. In the case of noncompliance, alternate Finalists will be selected. Travel companions must execute Liability and Publicity Release prior to issuance of travel documents. Finalists and one guest will be invited to the Grand Prize Event in Charlotte, N.C., where each Finalist will be matched, at random, with six of the top 42 cars that will start the UAW-GM QUALITY 500. Each Finalist will be matched with the following cars: one of the top seven Winston Cup point holders (as of 10/5/00) and five of the remaining 35 cars. The Finalist who is matched with the car that wins the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 will be the Grand Prize Winner, subject to verification of eligibility. In the event that a car not represented in the 42-car Finalist distribution wins the race, each Finalist will select one of seven envelopes — in order of their random selection. The Finalist who selects the envelope containing the number of the car that wins the race will be the Grand Prize Winner. If the race is rescheduled for any reason, the Finalists will maintain their car selection and the winner will be decided on the outcome of the rescheduled UAW-GM QUALITY 500 race, whenever it may be. If the race is canceled, a random selection among the Finalists will determine the Grand Prize Winner. The odds of being selected as a Finalist depend on the number of valid entries received for the specific drawings. If any Finalists are unable to attend the Grand Prize Event or Car Selection Ceremony, a proxy may be sent with prior notice to and approval of Sponsor, appropriate authorization of Finalist and execution by proxy of Liability and, where legal, a Publicity Release. If the prize notification letter is returned or deemed undeliverable, an alternate winner may be selected. Random drawings and race car Finalist pairings will be conducted under the supervision of Quantum Marketing, Inc., an independent organization. Prizes will be awarded in the name of the winners and are non-transferable (except as specified) and non-exchangeable for cash; however, Sponsor reserves the right to substitute a prize of comparable or greater value due to unavailability. 5. Prizes/Approximate Retail Value (ARV) — Seven (7) Finalist Prizes — a trip for two to the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 race in Charlotte, N.C., on October 8, 2000. Trip consists of round-trip coach air travel from the major commercial airport nearest winner's residence, four nights hotel accommodations (10/5-8/00), two seats in a Lowe's Motor Speedway suite for the UAW-GM QUALITY 500 and the All Pro Bumper to Bumper 300, all ground transportation in Charlotte and $500 cash (ARV $2,000). Trip must be taken on dates specified by Sponsor. All other expenses not specified are the responsibility of Finalists. One (1) Grand Prize — a 2001 Chevrolet Corvette (ARV $55,000). Vehicle ARV based on 2000 MSRP and is subject to change. Grand Prize Winner will be responsible for all registration, license, title and insurance fees. Vehicle will be ordered through a Chevrolet dealership near winner's residence from among a pre-approved list of factory options. Winner must provide a valid driver's license and evidence of insurance upon taking delivery which must take place within 60 days of notice of availability. Some restrictions may apply. 6. Conditions — Sponsor is not responsible for error, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, delay in operations or transmission, theft or destruction or unauthorized access to or alterations of entry materials, or for technical, network, telephone, computer, hardware or software malfunctions of any kind, or inaccurate transmission of, or failure of Sponsor to receive entry information on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the Internet or at any Web site or any combination thereof. Sponsor is also not responsible for any injury or damage to entrant's or any other's computer related to or resulting from playing or downloading any materials in the Sweepstakes, or for event entries that are late, lost, misdirected, damaged, incomplete or illegible. Sponsor reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to cancel Sweepstakes in its entirety or partially, if a method of entry becomes technically corrupted or because of non-authorized human intervention. CAUTION: ANY ATTEMPT BY A CONTESTANT OR ANY OTHER INDIVIDUAL TO DELIBERATELY DAMAGE ANY WEB SITE OR UNDERMINE THE LEGITIMATE OPERATION OF THE SWEEPSTAKES MAY BE A VIOLATION OF CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LAWS, AND SHOULD SUCH AN ATTEMPT BE MADE, SPONSOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO PROSECUTE ANY SUCH INDIVIDUAL TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW. Sponsor is not responsible for late, lost, misdirected entries or mail. By entering, participants (a) agree to these official rules and the decisions of the Sponsor and judges which shall be final in all respects; (b) release Sponsor, General Motors Corporation, Quantum Marketing, Inc., their divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, and advertising and promotion agencies and Exposure Marketing, Inc., their respective directors, officers and employees from any and all liability for any injuries, losses or damages of any kind caused by their participation or resulting from acceptance, possession, use, or misuse of any prize; and (c) acknowledge that said parties have neither made nor are in any manner responsible or liable for any warranty, representation or guarantee, expressed or implied, in fact or in law, relative to the prize including, but not limited to, its quality, mechanical condition or fitness, except for any standard limited warranty offered by the manufacturer of the prize. 7. Winners List — For the names of the Finalists and Grand Prize Winner, mail a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: UAW-GM QUALITY 500 Sweepstakes, PO Box 181, Byron MI 48418. 8. Sponsor — UAW-GM Center for Joint Activities, 2630 Featherstone, Auburn Hills MI 48326.

A fund raiser for a Romulus leukemia victim's five young school children is slated to be held from 6 p.m. to midnight tomorrow at the Romulus Progressive Hall.

Sponsors of the dinner said the victim died May 13 after being diagnosed with acute myeloid leukemia following years of service to local children.

The beloved mother had served as a Romulus school bus driver for both St. Aloysius and Cory Elementary Schools. She also was a scout leader, parent volunteer and was active with many of her children's sports activities.

Checks for $12 or more to aid the family should be made out to the Romulus Rotary Foundation, with a designation on the bottom "leukemia victim fund."

They should be mailed to Rhonda Skinner, 6169 Hyde Park, Romulus, MI. 48174.

Fund raiser organizers said the Romulus Progressive Hall is located at 11580 Ozga Road in Romulus. No reservations need to be made to attend the dinner and tickets will be sold at the door.

For tickets call 734-595-3085 or 734-941-6053.

WESTSIDE SINGLES dances are slated for 8 p.m. on Fridays at the Burton Manor in Livonia. It is located on Schoolcraft Road, west of Inkster Road. Cost is $6 after 8:30 p.m. Hotline is 734-981-0909.

GOLF CLUB GRAND OPENING is slated June 20 in Romulus for the first nine holes at the Gateway Golf Club, 33290 Gateway Drive (off Van Born Road). In addition to a prime golf course a total of 650 single family homes and condominiums will be available later this year. For more information call David Hyde at 248-601-0970.

SINGLE MINGLE DANCE is slated every Wednesday from 8 p.m. at the Warren Chateau Banquet Center, 10 Mile Road, one block east of Mound in Warren. Cost is $5. No jeans please. Hotline is 313-842-0443.

AFTER DINNER DANCES every Sunday from 8 p.m. at the Warren Chateau Banquet Center, 10 Mile Road, one block east of Mound in Warren. Cost is $5. Hotline is 313-842-0443.

WILLOW RUN LOCAL 1776 REUNION is slated from noon to dusk on July 15 at Lower Huron Metro Park in the Tuliptree area, 17485 Savage Road in Belleville. Bring your classic car to show at the classic car show. For more information call Linda Taylor at T and C phone number 734-485-8000

Romulus seniors planning for 'National Night Out'

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Concerned Romulus senior citizens and their advisors are now putting the finishing touches on local plans for the National Night Out programs slated for July 29.

Linda Norman, Romulus senior citizen coordinator, said volunteers are still needed for the multi-faceted events planned for that night.

The events that stress senior citizen-police department teamwork have been stepped up in recent years to make local residents feel more secure in their home neighborhoods and other areas they travel on a daily basis.

The events also include a number of "fun activities" that allow seniors to socialize with each other and gain new friendships.

For more information call Norman at 734-942-6852.

Norman also revealed that the annual June luncheon is slated for noon tomorrow at the Romulus Senior Center.

A light lunch of bread and homemade soup will be provided by by Lisa Zeliji and Kathryn Gable's third grade classes at Wick Elementary School.

For dessert classic old fashioned banana splits and sundaes will be served (but seniors must bring their own bananas).

Prior to the lunch the winners of a three category contest will be announced.

The categories are: favorite person, favorite thing and favorite animal/insect/etc.

The cost is $1.50 to help cover the cost of the ice cream and toppings.

Starting June 19, the Romulus Senior Center will have young persons available to do outside chores from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The work styles include raking, planting, cleaning yards, painting, etc.

The times will be on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays each week.

Arrangements can be made by calling 734-942-6852.

Senior citizen trips are slated for the Soaring Eagle

Casino in Mt. Pleasant on June 20 (cost $21), Bay Mills Casino on July 20 (cost $129), Mackinac Island on Oct. 22-25 (cost $519 including six meals) and a Hawaiian Cruise and Tour will be offered for 19 days in Sept. 2001.

For more information call 734-942-6852,

Norman also announced that the Wayne Community Center is offering water aerobics for senior citizens and arthritis sufferers.

Classes are offered every Tuesday and Thursday at 9 a.m. and the cost is $19 for 15 visits.

Area residents may attend the offerings on their own, Norman said, or for groups of three or more the Romulus Senior Center will offer transportation for a cost of $1 per person per day.

Advance request for the transportation is required.

Haircut sessions at the Romulus Senior Center have been switched to 9 a.m. the third Monday of the month.

Sign ups and $5 fees are needed for the June 19 hair cut session.

Correction

Charles J. Dick Jr. -- one of the framers of the Romulus City Charter 30 years ago -- is not dead.

A family member of Dick's informed the Romulus Roman last week that Dick is still alive and resides in Wayne.

Two weeks ago the Roman ran an article on the city's 30th birthday with information supplied by City Hall stating that current Mayor William Oakley was the only surviving member of the creators of the City Charter effort.

The Dick family said the story created phone calls to their home asking when the former chamber supporter had died.

The staff of the Romulus Roman apologize for any inconvenience the story caused the Dick family.

Letters

tion of using the school board as a stepping stone for the city council, where he can join his buddy David James, and in fact the other three currently under threat of recall. A vote for school board is actually a vote for council. He has no intention of staying, believing he will replace Mrs. Scott a year into his term.

We will have petitions outside many of the precincts, having been given permission by the state to do so. Please come down and vote, and sign petitions! Be aware of what is going on in your city. They want low voter turnout; they expect it. Show them differently. Low voter turnout means victory for the status quo.

Status quo means business as usual.

Current Romulus councilman appalled by ex-council remarks!

To the Editor:

This letter is in response to Ex-Councilman Jimmie Raspberry's letter dated April 13, 2000 in reference to the Site Review Board meetings held at Romulus High School for the purpose of making a recommendation to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ).

I also know the responsibility of an elected official and it is not by denying citizens of their first amendment rights of freedom of speech, as Mr. Raspberry stated in "Romulus Officials Should Have Muzzled Taylor Hotheads At The MDEQ Hearing".

I attended all the site review board hearings and heard all of Rep. Basham, Mr. Priebe, Mr. Boike and Mayor Pitoniak's questions. They all expressed the concerns of the citizens of Romulus and Taylor. Without these gentlemen the site review board may have ruled in favor of EDS.

Mr. Raspberry stated Romulus has spent untold tax dollars fighting this well. What he fails to tell the public is that Mr. Raspberry voted in favor of the well on December 10, 1990, and has been a strong supporter of EDS and their well. I, on the other hand, have voted against this well at every opportunity for the past ten years. Our community improvements and infrastructure have not suffered, and we still deliver a balanced budget with expensive city services.

For the past ten years, I have stated many reasons why I oppose the hazardous injection well. It will not only have a negative impact for years to come on Romulus and Taylor residents, but will also effect all of Southeastern Michigan and The Great Lakes.

In closing it saddens me that Mr. Raspberry could still defend a hazardous injection well over the residents and taxpayers who go to sleep every night in our city. During my tenure as Councilman, I have always put our residents first. Unfortunately, history shows that not all elected officials have put our residents first. Unfortunately, history shows that not all elected officials have put our residents first. I hope present and future elected officials will think first of those who live and raise their families here and continue to press forward creating a better quality of life for our citizens.

Sincerely,

Bill Wadsworth,

Councilman City of Romulus

Kids First Yes provides chance to replace public school monopoly with choice

To the editor:

Mr. Helfman's editorial about National Heritage Academics versus the Canton schools (May 18) was right on the mark. It points directly to the root of the problem with today's public education system. It has become a system too large and too disconnected from its consumers to remember its purpose is to provide education. It is ironic that so many people who call for the break-up of Michigan, are mute when it comes to the biggest monopoly of all, public education. Whenever anyone challenges the educational status quo, they are immediately met by a blob of resistance, which focuses not on what is best for children, but what is best for them. "Oh, my gosh, we'll have to close buildings, we'll have to lay off teachers, what will we do with all of these buses!" I know; I've been inside the system for four years, and no stranger to the BLOB.

It is time to admit dismal failure at the elusive dream of finding one single educational model that serves the needs of every individual. The single solution mentality doesn't work in restaurants, automobiles, houses, insurance, or anything else you can name. It especially doesn't work in opening young minds. Choices need to be available to all parents, not just for those who have money.

The grass roots movement toward educational options such as charter schools, school vouchers, and homeschooling, is recognition of the fact that no one-size-fits-all solution is possible. A rising tide of choices will lift all schools who are quick to define what parents want, and sink the ones that continue to ignore consumer desires. The drowning sound will be especially prevalent in places like Detroit, Flint, and similar communities where nearly all parents continue to flock in mass to any option outside the public system that is able to overcome the blockade (such as Plymouth-Canton is now erecting) and somehow present itself. If the BLOB is doing such a great job, as it likes to proclaim, then what is it so afraid of?

Thank goodness, a groundswell of people tired of the system they are forced to sentence their children to, will have the chance to speak out this November with the Kids First Yes ballot proposal for school vouchers. We will see how many people vote to continue the monopoly that only serves itself, and how many elect to replace it with a system of options that finally addresses the educational desires of parents and children.

Thank you Mr. Helfman for your courage in confronting the government school monopoly. It is time they let our children go.

Sincerely,

Tom Bowles

Van Buren Public Schools

Trustee
